Brief Breezes

Crops and gardens are greatly damaged and will be beyond re-sue if rain doesn't come shortly.

Grandma Dudley, who has been sick at the home of her son, George, is greatly improved and returned home Wednesday.

Miss Oma Taylor is staying with Grandma Dudley.

Id memory of Lester Rushing:
One more home is made lonely.
Two more hearts are made sore.
For the darling babe they loved so well Shall brighten their home no more.
God's will is done, and the child has gone To dwell with its Saviour for aye.
Take consolation, for where it has gone
You, too, can go some day.
'Tis true, you loved it, but God loved it more.
And took it with him to dwell,
So be consoled with this blessed thought 'He doeth all things well.'

The darling child shall forever live In the beautiful Heaven so bright;
Never to know a grief or care,
Never to know a night.
His home in Heaven's happier far Than any can ever be here.
What more can comfort the aching heart
Than the hope of meeting him there?

Obituary

Gone to Heaven—Hazel, the infant daughter of Ed and Julia Rich, was born May 22, 1916, and died July 23, 1916, aged 2 months and 1 day. The dear little one was laid to rest in the Pleasant Ridge cemetery. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. N.
Findley. May the Lord bless Brother and Sister Rich in their sorrow. They have the sympathy of their many relatives and friends.

Hazel, we know where thou hast gone:
Thy pain and sorrow here are o'er;
May we all live to meet you On that happy, golden shore.—C. N. F.

Elizabeth Jackson, daughter of Stephen and Amanda Jackson, was born in London, Laurel Co., Ky., July 8, 1833, and died in Mountain Grove, Mo., July 28, 1916, at the age of 83 years and 20 days. At the age of 21 she was married to Henderson Mc-Hargue. To this union were born eight children, three of whom survive. These are S. A. Mc-Hargue, Los Angeles, Cal., J. H.
McHargue, Tyrone, Okla., and Mrs. Alice Bobbitt, Valley Oak, Ky. Some years after the death of Mr. McHargue she was married to Conrad Raney, who died Oct. 22, 1904. To this union were born three children, two of whom —Mrs. Ida Newton of Mountain Grove and Mrs. Lela Wood of Columbia—survive. M. B. Raney having died March 12, 1916. The deceased was early converted to the Christian religion and had lived a consistent Christian life for over 60 years. The funeral was conducted by the writer at the Bethel chapel church, after which the body was laid to rest in the Bethel chapel cemetery.
Sister Raney was a member of the Gravel Point church, a faithful member until death.

Hastens to Tell His Friends of Some Interesting Facts.

In order to convince the readers of this paper that men and women from all stations in life are now praising a wonderful medical discovery called "Hays' Specific," we reproduce herewith a good letter from W. F.
Porter, representing a large harvesting machine company.

In part he says:
Gentlemen:—In May I called at your office for a dollar bottle of your Hays' Specific and I did it because I had talked with Mr.
C. E. Weldon, having known him for fifteen years, and I thoroughly told him the condition I was in.

I had no strength, had indigestion and bad heart, in fact, I was not able to carry my grip from the depot to the hotel. And I am duty bound to any traveling man or any sufferer from indigestion or run-down system to state one-half of this dollar bottle straightened and strengthened me up so much that I could eat anything I wanted, walk a mile and carry my grip. And being a harvesting machine man I went to the harvest field and stayed all day.

been placed on sale in Mansfield

YIELD ELEMENTS

Ingredients of Tanlac Are Gathered From All Over the World.

From the most remote sections of the world—civilized and uncivilized—come the elements, or medicinal properties, that compose Tanlac, the Master Medicine, now sold in Mansfield, and which has proved such a boon to countless thousands in many sections of the United States.

The Alps, Apennines, Pyrenees, contribute their infinitesimal part; Russian Asia, Europe, Jamaica, Brazil and the West Indies are scoured for some of the roots, barks and herbs used in the preparation. The mountain states near the Rockies, Asia Minor, Persia, India, Mexico, Columbia and Peru send some of the ingredients that have made proved of such vast benefit.

These medicinal roots, barks and herbs are shipped to the Tanlac laboratories, Dayton, O., where they are compounded with the most scrupulous care.

Under the efficient direction of Joseph Von Trimbach, a native German chemist of renown, these ingredients are mixed and blended until they have reached the high state of perfection shown in the uniform preparation, Tanlac.

In sterilized bottles, made especially for the purpose, Tanlac is placed, labeled and car-toned and then sent to various parts of the world, where the demand requires, some of the medicine going to countries from which the ingredients came.

Tanlac is destined to become as popular in Mansfield as it has in other cities of this state, where it has been introduced.
Tanlac is sold exclusively in Mansfield at the Fuson drug store.—Adv.

A New Back for An Old One.—How It Can Be Done in Mansfield.

The back aches at night with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame that to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back if the kidneys are weak. You cannot reach the cause. Mansfield residents would do well to profit by the following example.

J. T. Mason, Elkland, Mo., says: "For a long time I had a dull, throbbing ache through the small of my back. I couldn't sleep well because my back was sore. When I stooped, sharp twinges caught me in my sides.
My head ached and I had dizzy spells. Too frequent and painful passages of the kidney secretions annoyed me. Someone told me to take Doan's Kidney Pills and when I did I was relieved of the trouble."

Price 50c, at all druggists.
Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills —the same that Mr. Mason had.

Borders.

Several from this vicinity attended the picnic at Hartsville Saturday and report a good time.

The death angel called at the home of Elmer Rushing Saturday morning, July 29, 1916, and took away their only child, Lester, who had been suffering from spinal meningitis. He was 1 year, 6 months and 24 days old at the time of his death. He leaves his parents and many relatives and friends to mourn his loss, but what is their loss is his eternal gain, for he has gone to be with Jesus through all ages. Rev. Joseph Davis conducted the funeral Sunday at Antioch.

Angels called thee, little Lester,
Called thee to their sunny home,
And we know that thou art waiting For the loved ones here to come.

Oh we long to hear the singing Of that bright, immortal throng;
Hear the gold harps ringing In that happy land of song Where little Lester is calling us to come Sweetest, fairest, brightest flower, Daring of our heart's fond love,
Oh we miss thee every hour.
Since they called thee up above.

Angels called thee, little Lester,
Called thee in thy early bloom;
Now thy form is resting In the cold and silent tomb.
Small white hand are folded;
Quiet now thy dainty feet, Brightest eyes are closed forever.
Gone the smiles that were so sweet.

Angels called thee, little darling,
From all pain and care away,
To the realms of joy eternal,
To that land of purest day.
We will miss thee, Oh how sadly,
No sweet lips now to kiss,
But we will meet thee, little Lester,
In that home of perfect bliss,
With that happy angel band.

Angels called thee, little Lester,
Called thee to their sunny home,
And we know that thou art waiting
For the loved ones now to come.
